Scope of Review

We conducted our review in accordance with International Standard on Review Engagements 2410, Review of Interim Financial Information Performed by the Independent Auditor of the Entity. A review of interim condensed consolidated financial information consists of making inquiries, primarily of persons responsible for financial and accounting matters, and applying analytical and other review procedures. A review is substantially less in scope than an audit conducted in accordance with International Standards on Auditing and consequently does not enable us to obtain assurance that we would become aware of all significant matters that might be identified in an audit. Accordingly, we do not express an audit opinion.

Conclusion

Based on our review, nothing has come to our attention that causes us to believe that the accompanying interim condensed consolidated financial information is not prepared, in all material respects, in accordance with IAS 34 Interim Financial Reporting.

Operating environment

Emerging markets such as Kazakhstan are subject to different risks compared to more developed markets, including economic, political, social, legal and legislative risks. Laws and regulations affecting businesses in Kazakhstan continue to change rapidly; tax and regulatory frameworks are subject to varying interpretations. The future economic direction of Kazakhstan is heavily influenced by the fiscal and monetary policies adopted by the government, together with developments in the legal, regulatory, and political environment.

Because Kazakhstan produces and exports large volumes of oil and gas, its economy is particularly sensitive to the price of oil and gas on the world market. Moreover, the state of the economy is significantly influenced by government spending on major infrastructure projects and various programs of the country's socio-economic development.

During the first quarter of 2024, the average price of Brent oil was around 83.15 USD per barrel (83.00 USD per barrel during 2023). For the period from January to March 2024, the economy of Kazakhstan increased by 3.9%. In March 2024, the annual inflation accelerated to 9.1%.

In April, the Monetary Policy Committee of the National Bank of the Republic of Kazakhstan decided to maintain the base rate at the level of 14.75% per annum with a corridor of +/- 1 percentage point. In 2024, US inflation shows a slight increase, and therefore the global regime of tight monetary policy may continue longer than previously expected. In March 2024, there was an increase in the FAO global food price index, which also contributes to rising inflation expectations. At the same time, there is an aggravation of the geopolitical situation in the Middle East, which may result in an increase in energy prices. In Kazakhstan, inflation continues to decline in annual terms, but at a slower pace than in 2023. The increase in tariffs for regulated services had an impact on the overall consumer price index.

3. Significant accounting policies

The same accounting policies, presentation and methods of computation have been followed in this interim condensed consolidated financial information as were applied in the preparation of the Group's consolidated financial statements for the year ended 31 December 2023.

4. 4a. Significant accounting estimates

In preparing this interim condensed consolidated financial information, the significant judgments made by the management in applying the Group's accounting policies and the key sources of estimation uncertainty were consistent with those that applied to the Group's annual consolidated financial statements for the year ended 31 December 2023 prepared in accordance with IFRS. There have been no changes to the basis upon which the significant accounting estimates have been determined compared with 31 December 2023, except for those disclosed in this Note below.

Measurement of allowances for expected credit losses ("ECL")

Due to significant changes in the operating environment caused by the realized geopolitical risks, an extraordinary stress-testing of the Group's financial stability was carried out. The results of stress testing show some decrease in certain financial indicators (growth in allowances for expected credit losses, decrease in net profit and outflow of customer funds). At the same time, given that the Group has a sufficient amount of equity capital and liquid assets, a significant deterioration in the Group's financial position and violation of prudential norms and requirements is not expected.

4b. Restatements

In preparing the interim condensed consolidated financial information for the three months ended 31 March 2024, the Group carried out an inventory of its financial instruments. The inventory process identified financial instruments measured at fair value through profit or loss that were previously restricted in use and were incorrectly measured at cost. The Group revaluated these financial instruments and recognized prior period adjustments.

Restructured and modified loans to customers

The Group derecognises a financial asset, such as a loan to a customer, if the terms of the contract are renegotiated in such a way that it effectively becomes a new loan and the difference is recognized as a gain or loss on derecognition before an impairment loss is recognized. On initial recognition, loans to customers are classified in Stage 1 for the purpose of estimating expected credit losses, unless the loan originated is considered POCI. If the modification does not result in a significant change in cash flows, then derecognition does not occur. No material modification gain/(loss) of loans to customers was recognized in the first quarter of 2024 and 2023.

As at 31 March 2024, accrued interest on loans comprised KZT 225,080 million (31 December 2023 – KZT 213,240 million).

During the three months ended 31 March 2024 and the year ended 31 December 2023, the Group received financial and non-financial assets by taking possession of collateral it held as security. During the three months ended 31 March 2024 and the year ended 31 December 2023, such assets of KZT 1,364 million and KZT 22,910 million, respectively, are included in assets classified as held for sale.

As at 31 March 2024 and 31 December 2023, loans to customers included loans of KZT 313,689 million and KZT 328,102 million, respectively, which terms were renegotiated. Otherwise, these loans would be past due.

The fair value of the Group's non-current assets held for sale was determined by independent appraisers. Income approach, comparative approach and cost-based approach were used to estimate the fair value of those non-current assets. To estimate the fair value of the properties, the highest and best use of the properties is their current use. There has been no change to the valuation technique during the year.

29. Financial risk management

Risk management is fundamental to the Group's banking business and is an essential element of the Group's operations. The main risks inherent to the Group's operations are those related to credit risk, liquidity risk and market/currency risks.

The Group's significant policies and procedures related to financial risk management has not changed during 3 months ended 31 March 2024 and are disclosed in the annual consolidated financial statements for the year ended 31 December 2023.

Liquidity Risk

Liquidity risk is the risk associated with the Group's inability to secure sufficient cash to meet its obligations on time. The Group's liquidity risk arises as a result of a discrepancy (mismatch) between the terms of claims on active operations and the maturities of liabilities.

As part of the risk management system, liquidity risk is measured and controlled through the following tools:

- monitoring compliance with regulatory (prudential) liquidity ratios;
- setting and regular monitoring of internal limits and triggers for liquidity risk: risk appetite level, VLARP indicator, limit on GAP gaps, liability concentration limits, indicators of early warning about liquidity risk;
- analysis of contractual maturities (GAP-analysis) and cash flow forecasting, including: planned transactions, projected rollover of attracted customer funds (taking into account the calculation of the stable part of funding);
- analysis of the concentration of funding sources (by largest depositors, by currency, by maturity of funding, by source of funding);
- indicators of early warning about liquidity risk, allowing to monitor and control liquidity risk;
- analysis of the volume of assets that can be used as collateral to raise liquidity;
- developing and regularly testing a contingency financing plan outlining a process for addressing liquidity shortages in emergency situations. The Contingency Funding Plan has been developed to define a set of procedures and activities to facilitate timely response to liquidity stress situations, including those identified as a result of stress testing;
- stress testing of the impact of changes in various macroeconomic and other factors and parameters on liquidity.

As at 31 March 2024 and 31 December 2023 the Group complies with main liquidity ratios and regulatory liquidity requirements.

The analysis of liabilities by maturity does not reflect the historical stability of customer current account balances, which have traditionally been repaid over a longer period than indicated in the tables above. In this regard, Management believes that although a substantial portion of current accounts and customer deposits are on demand and mature in less than one month, diversification of these deposits by number and type of depositors, and the past experience of the Group, indicate that these deposits provide a long-term and stable source of funding for the Group. Therefore, an essential part of the Group's current accounts is considered to be stable resources for the purposes of liquidity analysis and management. Additionally, the accumulated gap can be sufficiently covered by refinancing with the repurchase agreements and sale of liquid government and other high-quality rated securities or attracting long-term debt funding on capital markets when necessary.

30. Capital risk management

The Group's capital management objectives, which are a broader concept than the "equity" on the face of the consolidated statement of financial position, are as follows:

- To comply with the capital requirements set by NBRK;
- To safeguard the Group's ability to continue as a going concern so that it can continue to provide returns for shareholders and benefits for other stakeholders; and
- To maintain a strong capital base to support the development of its business.

The required level of capital is determined during the annual budgeting process, taking into account the above objectives, and is approved by the Management Board and the Board of Directors. As of the current date the capital adequacy of the Group is calculated according to prudential norms set for banks by the Kazakhstan regulatory authority, applying Basel Committee principles and methods.

Currently, regulatory capital is represented by:

- Tier 1 capital, which is required to maintain the normal operating activity of the Group and absorb losses as they arise. It consists of Common Equity Tier 1 capital ("CET 1 capital") and Additional Tier 1 capital, which includes common shares issued by the Group, share premium, retained earnings, other accrued comprehensive income and disclosed reserves and regulatory adjustments (deductions);
- Tier 2 capital, which is required to absorb losses in case of the Group's liquidation. This part of capital consists of instruments issued by the Group and deductions.

Risk-weighted assets are split into five different groups, based on the risk level of the investment and its possible impairment, and weighted according to the nature of and reflecting an estimate of credit, market and other risks associated with each asset and counterparty, taking into account any eligible collateral or guarantees. A similar treatment is adopted for off-balance sheet exposure, with some adjustments made to reflect the more contingent nature of the potential losses.

From 1 January 2017, the regulatory requirements of the NBRK, taking into account the recommendations of Basel III, set the minimum values for the adequacy ratios of core capital, Tier 1 capital and equity capital in the amount of 9.5%, 10.5% and 12.0%.

External revenues, assets and credit related commitments have generally been allocated based on domicile of the counterparty. Cash on hand, property and equipment and capital expenditure have been allocated based on the country in which they are physically held.

32. Fair values of financial instruments

IFRS defines fair value as the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date.

Fair value of the Group's financial assets and financial liabilities measured at fair value on a recurring basis.

Some of the Group's financial assets and financial liabilities are measured at fair value at the end of each reporting period. The table below provides information on how the fair value of these financial assets and financial liabilities is determined by levels of the hierarchy (in particular, the valuation technique and inputs used).

Financial assets and financial liabilities are classified in their entirety based on the lowest level of input that is significant to the fair value measurements. Management assessment of the significance of a particular input to the fair value measurements requires judgment, and may affect the valuation of the assets and liabilities being measured and their placement within the fair value hierarchy.

The Group considers that the accounting estimate related to valuation of financial instruments where quoted markets prices are not available is a key source of estimation uncertainty because:

(i) it is highly susceptible to change from period to period because it requires management to make assumptions about interest rates, volatility, exchange rates, the credit rating of the counterparty, valuation adjustments and specific feature of the transactions and (ii) the impact that recognizing a change in the valuations would have on the assets reported on its interim condensed consolidated statement of financial position as well as its statement of profit or loss could be material.

Fair value of financial assets and financial liabilities that are not measured at fair value on a recurring basis (but fair value disclosures are required).

The following methods and assumptions are used by the Group to estimate the fair value of financial instruments not carried at fair value.

Amounts due from and to credit institutions

For assets and liabilities maturing within one month, the carrying amount approximates fair value due to the relatively short-term maturity of these financial instruments. For the assets and liabilities maturing in over one month, the fair value was estimated as the present value of estimated future cash flows discounted at the appropriate period-end market rates.

Loans to customers

The estimate was made by discounting the scheduled future cash flows of the individual loans through the estimated maturity using prevailing market rates at the respective period-end.

Amounts due to customers

Interest rates charged to customers closely approximate market interest rates and accordingly, the carrying amounts approximate fair values.

Debt securities issued

Market values have been used to determine the fair value of debt securities traded on an active market. For other debt securities, the fair value was estimated as the present value of estimated future cash flows discounted at the period-end market rates.

33. Related party transactions

Related parties or transactions with related parties are assessed in accordance with IAS 24 “Related Party Disclosures”. Related parties August enter into transactions which unrelated parties might not. Terms, conditions and amounts of related party transactions are usually same as those between unrelated parties.

When considering each possible related party, the substance of the relationship between the parties is taken into account, and not just their legal form.

During 2024 and 2023, the Group entered into arm-length transactions with entities where the Group’s shareholders were one of the participants. Management believes that any control of these entities is with unrelated parties as per IFRS through the level of holding control or trust management arrangements, which are in compliance with Kazakhstan legislation. As such, these transactions are not disclosed as being with related parties.
